

Going Abroad

Directions:

Using your knowledge from the lesson and some additional research, create an attractive pamphlet a young American might read when preparing to live, work or study abroad.

1. Include the following information in your pamphlet:
 - things one should consider before going abroad
 - possible drawbacks of going abroad
 - safety concerns of going abroad
 - benefits of going abroad
 - attributes an employer may be looking for
 - jobs one may want to seek abroad
2. Attach a citation sheet detailing all sources used.
3. Be prepared to share you pamphlet with the class.
