

Roles of Officers

Directions:

Perform the necessary research to define each type of officer listed below and describe their roles in developing positive community relationships. Include general responsibilities of each and how those actions contribute to community-oriented policing.

1. Patrol officers

2. School resource officers

3. Neighborhood service officers

4. Crime prevention officers

5. Public information officers