

Interview a Parent

Directions:

1. Find a parent who is NOT your own and arrange a time to interview him or her.
2. Develop five questions to ask in addition to the three listed here, and write them on this page. Do NOT duplicate any the questions listed.
3. You should record the interview and/or take extensive notes on a separate piece of paper. You may want to review the student questions before the interview so you can be sure to capture and understand the necessary concepts.
4. Answer the student questions listed on the following page.
5. Turn in the interview questions you developed, any interview notes and the answered student questions.
6. Be prepared to share and discuss insights you discovered with the class.

Interview Questions

1. How would you summarize a parent's job?
2. What skills do you feel would be beneficial for parenthood and how or why is each beneficial?
3. How has your life changed since becoming a parent?
- 4.
- 5.
- 6.
- 7.
- 8.

