

Accounting in the News

Directions:

Choose an article about a current event and develop a short presentation which summarizes the article and the role accounting played in the event.

1. Choose an article about a current event by looking in a newspaper or online. If looking online, use a news website such as CNN.
2. Develop a short three to four minute presentation which includes at least the following:
 - Brief summary of the event
 - Explanation of the role accounting played in the event
 - focus on discussing the roles ethical responsibility and/or GAAP principles may have played in the events
 - list possible stakeholders, if the event involves a company
3. Present your presentation to the class.
