

Letter

Directions:

1. Read the letter and check for punctuation errors. Use editor's marks to correct any mistakes.
2. On your own sheet of paper, rewrite the letter correctly. Try to use a variety of punctuation while still following the rules you learned from the presentation.

Dear Mom,

I have missed you so vary much while I,ve been in Australia. I hope you have ben well, and are having a nice January at home. I am having a fun time and I am thinking about staying here for an extra week. The hotel where I am staying is beutiful. I think I got a good deal on it too "it only costs $200 each week." I do needing some more clothes though. I was wondering if you could send me some from my closet? I need; three pairs of shorts: four shirts: a pair of sandals: and a pair of athleticshoes. How is everything at home. I hope you havent been to lonely with out me around. I think about you everyday and say to myself (what is Mom doing today!?) I promise to have great photos fun gifts and cool stories when I return. I'm sure the time will fly by visiting museums and going to the beach. Thanks for giving me the oportunity to do this. I love you.

Your sun,

Johnny