

Connecting a Wireless Router

Directions:

As a class, practice connecting a wireless router to your Internet network. Once the router is connected practice connecting different devices to the wireless network which has been created.