

Resources Needed for Livestock Production

Directions:

Answer the following questions.

1. Select all of the following which are reasons for an increase in demand for livestock products.
 - Consumer preferences
 - Income growth
 - Population growth
 - Urbanization

2. How much of the world's habitable land is expended for agriculture use?
 - A. About half
 - B. Less than one-third
 - C. More than three-fourths
 - D. About one-quarter

3. Which of the following is a reason why there is not competition between human resources and livestock feed?
 - A. Feed is formulated from sources not fit for human consumption
 - B. There is enough land to raise food for both livestock and human needs
 - C. There is no overlap in the items used for livestock feed and the food items humans consume
 - D. Overall, livestock consume less food than humans

4. Select all of the following which are purposes of water.
 - Animal waste disposal systems
 - Cooling
 - Nourishment
 - Sanitation
 - Washing facilities

5. About 40 percent of U.S. land is utilized for livestock production.
 - A. True
 - B. False